Sorry I forgot to attached the photo where the light is out. You will need to enlarge it a bit to see where the decorative light is attached.

Thanks

Dear Chris and Jeff:

There is a decorative light located at the corner of Santa Monica and Wilcox that is out. I have attached a photo for your information. It is just the head of the light which is attached to the signal pole sw corner. Let me know if you are able to replace the light - thank you so much for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Lisa Schechter
